PN NSW BULK RAIL EA 2017 Update: Pay and Protected Action

A short update on where the issues with pay deductions for participation the two 48 hour stoppages have progressed to.

Your RTBU team wrote to the company on Tuesday and gave them till COB today 10th November to respond and at time of writing we are yet to receive a response.

Once we receive their response, we will update you on the next steps based on the Company's response and our legal advice. However, you are reminded that resolving this issue will take time once we get the Company's response, member feedback on their actual circumstance and our legal advice. Your delegates will keep you updated throughout the process.

To provide the best assistance to members in resolving this issue, we need to know about your individual circumstances by COB Monday 13th November. If we do not have your details, we will be limited in the assistance we can provide you. If you are unable to open the link on your phone, type the web address into your internet browser.

To make sure your questions about your pay get answered in this process, please fill in the survey before Monday using the link: <http://bit.ly/RTBULDPN>
