

RAILTRAIN NEWSFLASH

Are they hiding something?

As you are all aware, the voting for the proposed Agreement closed at 5pm AEST yesterday.

For some reason, Railtrain is holding out on providing us the result. We have called and written to them but we are yet to receive the outcome of the vote. They are leaving the RTBU, the members and employees in the dark.

Of course, they can't keep this up forever, and the RTBU will continue to put pressure on them until they start behaving transparently in line with their legal obligations.

Keep an eye out for our next newsflash with the outcome of the vote!

RTBU LOUD! RTBU PROUD!

UNION LOUD. UNION PROUD.
